

OPEN DOORS...

Curses of Freemasonry are open doors to the enemy. If anyone in your family history including but not limited to parents, grand parents, great grand parents, etc. have been a freemason or a member of one of their other organizations, it is an open door to the enemy. One of our team member's son was seeing a demon in their home on Monday nights when his Dad is involved receiving training and sitting in during ministry so that he, too, can learn to do the supernatural works of Jesus. The Dad's Dad is a 32nd Degree Freemason. After declaring the 4 page Freemasonry renunciation, we are trusting that the ghost, i.e. demon, will no longer visit his son to scare him. During the process of declaring this Freemasonry renunciation, located on our website at <http://delmin.publishpath.com/Websites/delmin/images/dm-prayer-of-repentance-for-freemasons-long-rev00.pdf>, both he and I experienced deliverance and felt a lot better afterwards. – Richard Peterson

HAUNTINGS...

Today, 2 of us spent some time at my parents home because of a Word of Knowledge in the form of a Discerning of Spirits bubbled to the surface when interceding for my Dad. My Dad is 89. During the period of time we were at my parents home 2 objects seemed to be pointed out. One of them was the chair my Dad was sitting in. We got rid of one of the objects and spent time commanding the spirit of torment to leave the chair and asked the Holy Spirit to saturate every cell, every sound wave, every quark in the chair. The spirit of torment finally left the chair when we were in the process of taking it out the front door. I have returned to my parent's home and both Mom and Dad indicate that the spirit is gone. Dad was much brighter and was able to communicate better. – Richard Peterson
