THE WORLD KNOWS THE PROBLEM

WE KNOW THE ANSWER

Problem:

Was checking out the news on CNN.com and this was at the top of the news... an article about a little boy with "mental illness". I'm surprised at how vivid it is and how obvious it is that it's indeed evil spirits tormenting this guy. The mother and son thinks there's no answer!

Solution:

Jesus and the power of the Holy Spirit ministering through a believer.

TESTIMONY OF FREEDOM FROM BIPOLAR DISORDER

The whole story; i.e. the rest of the story:

For the past year, since December 2012. I began suffering from what I come to find out was, "bipolar disorder" or "demonic oppression". I see how it works both ways. To the non-believer, yes, I was bipolar and to the believer in the supernatural, "demonically oppressed". I am really disappointed that out of my life-long commitment of being a Christian, I had never heard of such a thing. I heard of demon possessed but oppression? Articles say that a Christian can not be possessed because the Holy Spirit dwells inside of them, but Christians CAN be oppressed by demonic activity. My mental illness started in 2013. I've never been one to be superstitious but I'd always heard 13 was an unlucky number. The process was year long. I would have good days and bad days. I won't go into details, but will explain the roller coaster I was on. It started with fear. I had an overwhelming feeling of uncontrollable fear. Overtime, the fear then turned in to paranoia.. My paranoia made me jumpy and constantly on edge. This brought on irritability. I had a very short temper especially with those I loved most. I began to notice my senses becoming heightened. hearing, seeing, smelling, etc. I began to fear evil/the demonic. I would start to notice the pale green color on people's faces which led me to believe they too were struggling with something and when I asked them if they had been going through a rough times, they would tell me yes, and then be surprised that I knew. I began to feel things heavily on my heart. I would get pounding headaches. It was as though someone was taking a hammer to my head. It was unbearable. This was followed by uncontrollable urges to commit suicide. (Even though in the back of my head I knew I never would). I would sit at home with random thoughts of condemnation and unworthiness. I would find biblical answers to fight what was going on with me, which led me to misapply scriptures in desperate attempts to "do the right thing". I would pray, but prayer was never enough. I was desperate for someone to pray with me, but for some reason felt as though I couldn't ask anyone. At times I would get the physical feeling that my heart was bleeding or seeping blood. My emotions began to take control of my behavior. Then I began to suffer from feeling uncontrollably overwhelmed and stressed out. All of the feelings began to intensify and build up to the point where I was texting and saying things that did not make sense. I later found out that the term for this was "word salad". Friends and family grew concerned and noticed that I was not being myself. I realized this which led me into anxiety and worry. I literally felt like I was going crazy and I was terrified of losing my mind forever. I began to look sickly. I was 14 lbs lighter and reached a weight of 121 which for me is unheard of. I usually weigh 135. I began to lose large chunks of hair. Dark circles appeared under my eyes and my face began to look different. Panic attacks set in. I would begin to cry uncontrollably for not apparent reason at all. I would hyperventilate feeling short of breath. Insomnia played a big role in this. I would wake up at exactly 3:00 which freaked me out because it was always spot on and I had always heard this to be the "devils hour". Old memories began to haunt me, troubling thoughts began to torment me. After a while, delirium and confusion set in. This is when things got really weird. Now, I was saying things that were way out there. I lost touch with reality which I later find is called "psychosis" I felt like I was in a dream or a nightmare. I felt dehydrated. I physically felt a metallic taste in my mouth and tasted like my gums were bleeding. I felt the skin on my face felt loose and like it was drooping. The skin on my arms felt like it was burning. It felt like someone was giving me an Indian burn or at the time my mind thought there was some kind of nuclear spill or magnetic pull. I felt like I had a magnetic energy or special powers. I didn't think this it's just that my entire body and being felt that way.

The whole time all of this was happening, I knew there was something demonic going on. I just knew that the majority of people don't believe in demonic activity. And if I started talking about demons through my episode then they really had a right to call me crazy. I didn't want to take medication for the rest of my life, so once I got out of the mental hospital. I researched everything I could find about demonic activity and mental disorders. I ran across a word called "deliverance" which I knew nothing about. I learned so much about spiritual warfare after I read book after book after book on this topic. I learned that I was not possessed but severely oppressed. These demons had to have a legal right to be in my life which I learned all about at a place called Deliverance Ministries. I now understand both sides of the explanation of mental disorders, the scientific and the spiritual. The spiritual side, makes much more sense to me. I was suffering from a stress induced chemical imbalance and/or demonic oppression. I know that the spiritual world is just as real as the physical world. The whole time I was in battle mode and I didn't know how to spiritually fight, I only knew how to pray. Prayer is too nice when dealing with an enemy that hates your guts and wants to steal from you, kill you and destroy you. When dealing with the demonic Jesus gave believers authority over them. "For I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome ALL powers of the enemy. Nothing by any means shall harm you". Luke 10:19. When we approach the front line, it's not about praying for things to get better it's about COMMANDING these things to leave in Jesus name! In warfare, it's time to speak with the authority that was given to you.

I was in a spiritual lion's den and now I know the devil's tactics. I honestly believe that the demons in my life had the legal right to be there either because of a generational sin (Free Masonry) or unforgiveness on my part, but that's a whole other story. I've learned a lot from my experience and now I'm a new person. Thank God for the blood of Jesus Christ! There is power in the blood and there is power in that precious name, the only name that causes demons to shudder... JESUS.

Ephesians 6:12 "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places."

INTERNATIONAL & NATIONAL MINISTRY

CUBA: A team of 3 Oklahomans spent 8 days in Havana, Cuba this month. This mission began in 2011 by Kyle Upchurch. The team ministered at the St. Lazarus Festival where santeria worshippers attended worshipping Lazarus before he was raised from the dead by Jesus, the Christ. Many churches are sending believers to Cuba to encourage the revival that has broken out in the last 18 months.

1. Thank you for your prayers.
2. We met with the satanic high priest of Cuba and were welcomed. His welcome was amazing and over the top. This is the third time Kyle has been to his home.
3. We ministered healing and deliverance in downtown Havana on the streets along with doing some ministry in people's homes.
4. Supernatural ministry and building of relationships made for a successful time of ministry working a local pastor in Cuba who seems to be a gatekeeper for Cuba in the Spirit.
5. We will share more next month.

YOUR CITY, YOUR STATE: We are developing training on video so that you can step out and do these supernatural works of Jesus wherever you are in the world.
